

Great Big 2 Night Summer Sleepover!

Saturday 16th July

Jim Cronin
Memorial Fund

Charity No 1126939

Join us for this very special adults only sleepover event! Our first sleepover event to be held at the charities new headquarters and education centre promises to be a sleepover to remember! Arrival is from 2pm on Saturday 16th July, with afternoon tea being served at 4pm, then its off to Monkey World to watch the primates bed down for the night. A delicious hot meal and desserts to die for await us on our return to the centre, followed by entertainment and our traditional campfire. After a good night's sleep, a full English breakfast will be served from 7.15am before heading off to the park to watch the primates before the park opens to the general public. Dinner will be served from 6pm followed by a relaxed evening around the campfire before bed.

Tickets are priced at £150.00 each. Refreshment are provided throughout this event, however if you would prefer to have something a little stronger in the evening, please bring your own drink and a glass. (preferably plastic).
